1. The underground movement is still active in Wroclaw (Breslau) and its environs. Members are principally high-school pupils, although there have been cases of children of 13 and 14 who have left home to join gangs in the neighboring forests. Principal activity is sabotage of industrial enterprises.
2. One group attacked a police station near Wroclaw in broad daylight and stole all the arms in the station.
3. One group, whose sworn aim is to kill as many Soviets as possible, blew up a special train near Legnica (Liegnitz). The train was carrying Soviet officers.
4. Another group killed two Soviets and beat two others unconscious at a celebration in a nearby village.
